

The CrossOver

PROPOSAL

"The CrossOver" is a weekly, half-hour, reality show for air on cable TV.

FOCUS

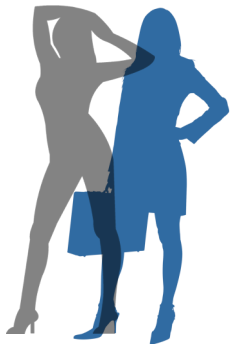

"The CrossOver" is built around a select group of young and sexy Penthouse models and adult industry stars. These free-thinking girls have mainstream dreams and aspirations outside the sex business and this TV show is going to give them that chance.

Concept

"The CrossOver" brings together a household of Penthouse models and adult stars in a single location for each woman to finally pursue a particular mainstream ambition she has never been able to tackle before.

The house where the girls live will take on a character of its own. The group's daily interactions will be a reflection of their skewed views of the world and their personal versus professional ups and downs, likes, dislikes, jealousies and confrontations.

Cast

Brittany Andrews

Brittany Andrews is a 38-year-old veteran of the Adult entertainment industry. After dropping out of school in 8th grade, this self-proclaimed entrepreneur jumped from job to job trying to earn enough money to both live and take care of her handicapped mother. She was the manager of a day school and even tried her hand at Beauty school, which wound up being a failing proposition.

It wasn't until she started stripping and doing nude layouts in adult magazines, that she began to earn a profitable living. Whether it be as a producer, on-camera talent, or marketer, Brittany has many skills that have enabled her to be successful within numerous industries and has even won some prestigious accolades over the years.

Brittany says that her best attributes are being able to manipulate people, and that she is a natural instigator. Brittany's is ready to move on to the next stage of her life and CrossOver to being one of the top DJ's in the country. She has practiced this craft, taken lessons, and even plays in clubs around the world.

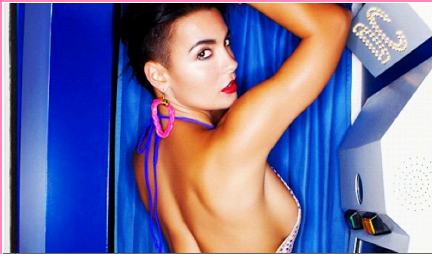

Alexis Ford

Alexis Ford is a 23 year-old hard-core Adult film star, originally named Danielle Digaetano. She grew up in Queens, NY, went to the prestigious Catholic high school, Christ the King, and had a very tumultuous family life. With her mother being in and out of rehab, her Dad re-marrying, and a psychotic ex-boyfriend, who won't leave her alone, Alexis now has to see a therapist 4 times a week.

After high school, Alexis packed up her car and traveled to the University of Miami where she studied in the highly touted nursing program. To make money during her time there, this sultry blond stripped at bachelor parties where she learned that making thousands of dollars an hour was pretty easy. This led to her first adult photo shoot which landed her the cover of Hustler, adult films, Penthouse Pet in March 2012, and Miss Howard TV. This brainy, self-proclaimed, "Wild Child," has risen to prominence in the adult industry after only 3.5 years.

She views porn as a job that supports her lifestyle, which includes traveling the world, hosting parties, and taking acting classes. She hates that people look at her like she's, "Not Human," and hopes that her dreams will be fulfilled to crossover to the CONVENTIONAL world of acting.

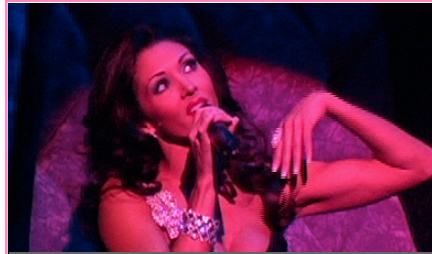

Krista Ayne

Krista Ayne is not your average "girl next door." Being born in Staten Island, NY to a traditional Italian family, this buxom Brunette already has a pretty successful career in print and music videos. She has never done hardcore porn – the closest she has come to anything like that was a starring role in the Cinemax series, Life on Top, where she played the head-strong, sexy kickboxing beauty, Maya.

After high school Krista attended a year-and-a-half at Hunter College where she studied Liberal arts, but after her acting/modeling career took off and was named Penthouse Pet runner up in 2007, she didn't have much time for studies. She went on to host shows on Spike (Bikini Pool Shark) and Fuse (Pants Dance Off), model for national ad campaigns, and become one of the most popular music video vixens on the circuit today.

This Pet-of-the-year runner up who loves to party with other young ladies definitely has a business mind, and before her career took off, she worked as a bartender at an Irish/German Pub where she learned the intricacies of running such an establishment. Besides distancing herself and image away from the hardcore girls' that people always lump her into, Krista dreams about one day opening her own bar where she can use her Brooklyn-born savvy, and mass appeal to make it a success.

Taya

This Pet-of-the-year comes from Marion, Ohio and was raised in a catholic family. Her parents have been married for 30 years. She has two sisters and one brother. Taya's mom worked at the local telephone company and her father was a stay-at-home dad during the day and a musician at night.

During high school, Taya was popular: a cheerleader, the lead in plays, a singer/dancer, member of the student council and class secretary.

Her jobs included waitressing at Denny's and being a sales girl at a retail store. The clothing store job led to modeling bikinis and that opened up doors for Taya to get into the adult industry and make herself financially independent for the first time in her life.

At the age of 34 Taya has remained a relevant part of the adult entertainment business without ever doing hardcore porn. She has her own home and a pre-teen son. Her mom went to one performance and commented, "Taya, I loved your show ... until you took your clothes off."

Taya has always had passion for developing herself as a live singer. She currently has a song on i-Tunes, but has never had the chance to really go for it. Taya has a huge personality that she exhibited on the reality show "Rock of Love." She confidently says, "I don't start it ... but ... I don't back down."

Mia Isabella

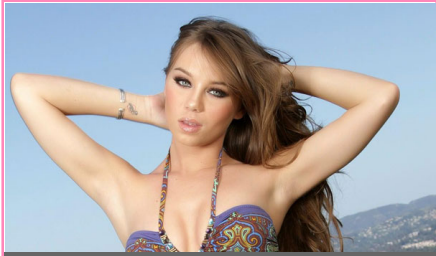

Mia Isabella is not your normal 26 year-old beauty – she is the most successful and popular Transsexual Adult star on the market today. She grew up in the quiet suburbs of Chicago raised by a mother and step-father, and coddled by 8 other siblings.

She knew she wanted to be a girl when she was only 4 years-old and told her mother so. Her family was very supportive of her at a young age, and Mia excelled in school because of it, finishing high school at 16. She went on to get her fashion degree from the Paris Fashion Institute and then opened up a Couture Boutique back home in Chicago.

In life, timing is everything, and her shop took a big hit during the recession of 2008. So being the entrepreneur that she is, Mia started the 1st and most successful Transsexual toy line on the web today, bringing her worldwide attention and fame. That opened up many business opportunities, but Mia has always wanted something more "normal" for a career.

So with the support of her fiancée, and her "take no prisoners" attitude, Mia is poised to CrossOver into the highly competitive, real estate market where she plans to start her own brokerage firm.

Capri

Capri is just 24 and struggled growing up. The place was Miami; the family status was illegal immigrant and she hated Christian boarding school. She had her first kiss at 17. Capri lost a younger brother and ran away from community college.

Capri wanted to make her own money, and her business-savvy mind turned to Craig's list, which became the source for picking up nude modeling jobs. And when her family stopped talking to her, Capri's struggles continued, but she says, "You know, I'm grateful for my job."

Capri's passion is her poetry. If she can get over her bad case of stage fright, she would like an opportunity to perform a live poetry reading of her work. Capri would like to, "change how people view girls like me."

Can Capri be confrontational? "Oh yes. I am one of the loudest, most vocal people out there. Not mean ... just assertive."

Victoria

At 39, Dr. Victoria Zdrok is the ideal den mother of the house. What are her qualifications? Victoria is noted for being one of only two women to be both a Playboy centerfold and a Penthouse Pet of the year. Zdrok is also a star of adult porn videos. But that's not all ... Victoria has a law degree and is a clinical psychologist and sex therapist. Victoria wants to help the girls with both their inner and outer lives. Some will need relationship counseling, others must work on job advice. All of them will need all of Victoria's wisdom and experience to live together and be successful in their new venture. Victoria says she is a healer and not a fighter. However, in a house full of young girls who have their heads in the clouds, Victoria is ready and willing to mediate, and if necessary, confront.

Viewers will be fascinated by what these beautiful, dedicated, highly intelligent girls will do and say every week. In each episode, the girls and the people they see during the day will face different challenges as the girls attempt to make a success out of their personal ambitions:

- Can Brittany achieve world-wide fame as a DJ?
- Will Alexis become a Hollywood actress?
- Can Krista open up and run a successful bar?
- Does Taya have what it takes to sing live?
- Can Mia open up her own Brokerage firm in NYC?
- Can Capri overcome stage fright and read her poetry?
- And ... will Victoria be able to handle them all!?

There will be endless problems launching these new careers, balancing the demands of the adult world with challenges of something new and different.
